Term and conditions: It is a requirement that all catering orders be received no later than seven (7) working days before your scheduled function date, to allow ordering and processing of your catering requirements. Final attendance numbers and any additional alterations made to your catering request must be made no later than three (3) working days prior to your function. If you require to make changes within three (3) working days of your scheduled visit, including at the time of your function, a surcharge of 10% will incur. Non-attendance of confirmed final numbers will be charged in full. Any request for catering must be cancelled a minimum of three (3) working days prior to your function date. Catering requests cancelled thereafter, will incur a 20% cancellation fee based on the quotation provided. Any alteration made to your catering request, or confirmation of final attendance numbers, must be made via the above-mentioned email address, to ensure prompt response by the Atomic Catering team. Minimum numbers may apply. All prices included in our menu are GST inclusive. Please note there is a 10% surcharge for all bookings made on Sundays and public holidays.

The management of Atomic Catering take all reasonable precautions to fulfil our responsibilities in providing safe food to all customers. Our employees operate under an approved Food Safety Program, which ensures that each process involved with catering for your function, is systematically analysed and controlled. Potential problems are identified and sufficient controls are put in place to reduce or eliminate risks. Atomic Catering will not be held liable for the health and safety of customers, for any food product removed from the venue or consumed more than sixty (60) minutes after the specified service time.

Our standard serving size is reasonable, however, children can ask for a slightly larger portion should they be hungry. Teacher and driver meals are of a larger serving size. Teacher meals will be charged as per a student meal, driver meals will be free of charge (FOC*).
